Tiffanie Williamson is 29 years old from Birmingham, Alabama. She has been interested in fashion since age twelve. Tiffanie fell in love with a garment, while watching ModelTV, and saw a model walk down the runway in a red Valentino gown. The gown flowed with such elegance. It was beaded with a touch of red lace. From watching this gown, she became interested in fashion. She started sketching garments from memory, and experimenting with many colors. Over time, she began to become inspired by nature, music, culture, and different areas. Her design philosophy, is that clothes are a way of expression - everyone should love what they are wearing, and it should reflect in one's attitude. Her target market is for women in their late 20's to late 40's. She loves to use vibrant colors, such as bright yellows, pinks, greens, and blues. Her designs are made for the career woman and for women who are going out to a sophisticated event. Today, she continues to embark in the world of fashion, and continues to expound upon her design aesthetic. She continues to learn about different sewing techniques, fabrics, and technology in the fashion industry. She graduated from The University of Alabama December 2015, and plans to pursue a career in the fashion industry, as well as pursue a Masters Degree in Fashion.

This collection is inspired by pastel colors and Japanese gardens. I love soft subtle colors and nature. I wanted to intertwine nature's beauty, with a touch of color. I used Japanese brocade fabric, linen, and suede. Each design has a unique twist. Design 1, is a butternut yellow and soft pink crop top, paired with a butternut yellow long skirt. Design 2 is a Japanese brocade dress with inverted pleats in the front and back. The brocade fabric is mint green, with hints of purple, turquoise, yellow, and pink. The fabric has flowers and birds on it. Lastly, design 3, is a pink tube ball gown. It is suede, and embellished with clear and pink crystals to give it some pizzazz.
